➔ Airport to Congress Venue by taxi

Shortest distance to Congress Venue is 10km. Call a taxi through Radio Taxi: +34 981 569 292. The taxis fare is approximately 18 €.

➔ by TRAIN to/from Santiago de Compostela Train Station

There are long-distance direct trains every day from/to Barcelona, San Sebastián, Hendaya and Madrid.

- Barcelona: 9h30min journey with LD-AVE (you have to change trains mid-way). There are two trains per day, one leaving at 5:15 and another one leaving at 7:48. Tickets are approx. 60€/one way.
- Madrid: 5h journey with ALVIA (the "fastest" train). There are two trains per day leaving from Madrid-Chamartin Train Station, one at 9:15 and the other one at 15:00. Tickets are approx. 20€ (but you have to book in advance, otherwise prices increase to around 50€).

Tickets can be booked at: www.renfe.com (official site) or www.trainline.eu (trains for the whole Europe). Tickets are available from 62 days in advance.

→ by BUS to/from Bus Station of Santiago de Compostela

Not really recommended for long distance routes, better to use the train: faster and cheaper.

Long distance routes. There are 3 options:

- Socitransa: if you're travelling from northern Europe
- FlixBus: from France
- Alsa: from other cities of Spain and Portugal

→ By CAR

AP-9 Atlantic Motorway: it connects Santiago de Compostela with A Coruña, Ferrol, Pontevedra, Vigo, Tui and the border of Portugal.

Expressway North-East A-6: it connects Galicia to the rest of Spain through the regions of Lugo (junction with Santiago de Compostela by the AP-9, around A Coruña).

Rapid Route of the Rías Baixas A-52: it connects Galicia to the rest of Spain by the province of Ourense (junction with Santiago de Compostela by the AP-9 to Vigo or by the N-525 to Ourense).

Expressway Cantabrian A-8: it connects Galicia to France by the Cantabrian coast (junction with Santiago de Compostela by the Expressway Northeast A-6).

Toll:

Many motorways in Spain are subject to a toll charge. At the toll stations, you are able to choose between a manual or an automatic toll payment. Please find more information here.
